

Conservation Award

Year	Recipient	Description	Source
1989	Caroline Giddens	Natural History Society, 'Flora of Exmoor' and conservation work at various locations	Awards File 17th Sept 1990 Annual Report 1989-90, p. 3
1990	Malcom Scott	Conservation work at Woodcock Gardens	Awards File, 15th JULY 1991 Annual Report 1990-91, p. 3
1991	Creenagh Mitchell	For her vigorous and sustained efforts on behalf of the Exmoor Ponies	Awards File , 3rd June 1992, Annual Rport 1991-92, p. 1
1992	Miss Joan Loraine	For organising tree planting near Wimbleball Lake at Hurscombe Plantation and overseeing their maintenance	Awards File, June 1993 Annual Report 1992-93, p. 1
1993	Gerry and Rene Perry	Practical maintenance work at three nature reserves	Annual Report 1993-94, p. 3
1994	Mr Roger Butcher	Farmer in the Brendon Hills with active work as a naturalist, recording bird sightings in the area	Annual Report 1994-95, p. 3
1995	Mr & Mrs John Waite	6 years in charge of the Malmsmead Field Centre and regular conservation work at the Treborough Woods Nature Reserve.	Annual Report 1995-96, p. 3
1996
1997	Chris and Anna Whinney	For their pioneering of short-rotation coppicing of broad-leaf trees and the use of organic fertilisers	Annual Report 1996-97, p. 3
1998	Peter Webley	Weather recorder for the Exmoor Society for the past 20 years, never missing a single day	Annual Report, 1997-98, p. 2
1999	Keith Bungay	Exmoor National Park Officer since 1988	Annual Report 1998-99, p. 3
2000	Tina and Cecil Owens	Conservation of wildlife on Exmoor, particularly a scientific study of dormice	Annual Rport 1999-2000, p. 3
2001	Noel Allen	Conservation of wildlife of Exmoor and work with the Exmoor Natural History Society	Annual Report 2000-2001, p. 3
2002	Roger Miles	Founder member of the Society. Responsible for the wooded areas of Exmoor in a professional capacity	Annual Report 2001-2002, p. 3
2003	Tony Bohannan	Long serving member of the North Devon CPRE with an expert understanding of planning law and procedures which he used to combat undesirable development in North Devon and the National Park.	Annual Rport 2002-2003, p. 2
2004	Ben Halliday	The first landowner to involve the National Park to look at the whole of his estate and manage it for wildlife	Annual Rport 2003-2004, p. 4
2005	Care Devon	'The Broad Walk' Woodland Project	Annual Report 2004-2005, p. 4

Conservation Award

2006	Mr and Mrs Dixon	Tireless work for the Exmoor Natural History Society at Woodcock Gardens and Luckbarrow maintaining the sites for wildlife.	Annual Report 2005-2006, p. 12
2007	Mr Henry Prout	For his skills in dry-stone walling, a traditional craft he learnt from his father and uncle.	Annual Report 2006-2007, p. 5
2008	Mr Bob Barfoot	For his tireless work in monitoring and reporting news of the various wind turbine planning applications in the area.	Annual Report 2007-2008, p. 5; Awards File 2008
2009	David Bawden	Farmed with a sympathetic attitude to the flora and fauna on his land. Allowed schools to camp on his land so the children could sample country life	Awards File, 2009
2010	Steve Ford	Former Head Teacher of Dulverton Middle and Community School for his instigation and support for the Exmoor Curriculum, encouraging children to learn about Exmoor and allowing them to participate in a variety of activities	Awards File 2010
2011	William and Henry Dart, Great Champson, Molland	For their work over more than half a century in agriculture and with the four native livestock breeds of Exmoor on their farms: Devon cattle, Exmoor Horn and Devon Closewool sheep and the Exmoor ponies.	Awards File 2011
2012	Mr & Mrs Brian Coulson and Mike Jones	For the Coulsons' work on the Common Dormouse at Woodcock Gardens, where their numbers have increased thanks to their dedication in seeing that this little creature has a good foothold on Exmoor. Mike Jones for his work documenting the history of the Brendon Hills including the West Somerset Mineral Line.	Awards File 2012; The Exmoor Review, Volume 55 2014, p. 127
2013	Charles Harding	For sharing his great knowledge of Exmoor and the red deer with a variety of groups, including the Exmoor Society	Awards File 2 The Exmoor Review, Volume 56, 2015, p. 126
2014	Martin Hesp	Journalist, born and bred in the area. Actively promoted the Exmoor National Park through his articles and walks	Awards File 2014
2015	Christina Williams	Her management of Molland Moor for ponies and cattle and experiments on how to re-establish heather on the moor.	Exmoor Review Volume 56, 2015, p. 125
2016	Rob Wilson-North, Conservation Manager ENPA	For archaeology on Exmoor and the interpretation of the designed landscape at Ashcombe. Publication of work on history of farming practices.	Exmoor Review Volume 57, 2017, p. 125